International Practice

Tianxin Li is a dedicated legal professional with over 14 years of experience in corporate law and commercial matters. She has developed expertise in areas such as inbound and outbound investment, mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, compliance, and dispute resolution. Tianxin's career reflects a strong commitment to her field and a consistent record of providing effective legal solutions.

Prior to joining V&T Law Firm, Tianxin worked at several leading law firms in China, where she refined her skills and expanded her professional network. Her practice covers a broad range of sectors, including technology, telecommunications, media and entertainment, food and agribusiness, real estate, government and public, education, consumer and retail.

Tianxin holds a Master of Laws degree (LL.M) from the University of California, Berkeley, where she also earned a Certificate of Specialization in Business Law. She enriched her legal training by participating in the Chinese Young Lawyers Program organized by the Bar Council of England and Wales, which included professional training at Erskine Chambers in London.

Throughout her career, Tianxin has had the privilege of providing comprehensive legal support to a diverse clientele, including multinational corporations, state-owned enterprises, financial investors, and government authorities. Her ability to navigate complex legal environments and deliver strategic legal solutions has made her a trusted advisor in the industry.
